"100 Voices-A Journey Home" is a documentary film that offers a unique and moving look at Polish/Jewish history and culture and highlights its current resurgence. The story is told through the personal reflections and musical performances of Cantors Assembly members who made an important historic mission to Poland, the birthplace of Cantorial music, in the summer of 2009.

Watch Cantor Ness conduct the National Polish Opera Orchestra and Choirs and Cantorial colleagues in pre-Holocaust Jewish music of his own orchestration. The documentary will give generations the opportunity to learn about and re-embrace the Jewish culture that produced one of the most artistic and educated societies that once flourished in Europe.
